

New Jersey Independent Electrical Contractors Win National Legislative Chapter Of The Year Award

From Left to Right; Steve Struble, Joseph Hovanec Jr., Arthur Carver and Greg Haren

New Jersey Independent Electrical Contractors was named the 2010 Legislative Chapter of the Year at the 2010 IEC National Convention and Expo in Phoenix Arizona.

New Jersey Independent Electrical Contractors Chapter President Arthur Carver and IEC Northeast Regional Director Joseph Hovanec Jr. Accepted the Award from 2010 IEC National President Greg Haren and IEC National Awards Committee Chairman Steve Struble.

Independent Electrical Contractors National Association also has a strong Nationally Recognized Government Affairs Committee representing Independent Electrical Contractors on Legislative and Regulatory issues in Washington DC. IEC National provides www.iecvotes.com enabling Electrical Contractors across the country to contact their Legislators in Washington on important issues affecting their business. The 2010 Award is New Jersey IEC's second consecutive Legislative Chapter of the Year Award having also won the award in 2009

"I want to personally thank New Jersey IEC and their membership for their strong support of our NJECPAC and congratulate them on a job well done", said NJECPAC Chairman Joe Coviello, pictured.

Please Help your NJECPAC continue to work to protect you and your business from damaging legislation and regulations from Trenton and Washington DC. NJECPAC provides the funding for Merit Shop Legislative Initiatives for Electrical Contractors and Small Businesses across New Jersey.

NJECPAC funding comes from generous contributions received from individual contractors, small businesses, individual local trade organizations, and individual taxpayers that each have an interest in protecting the industry in which they make their livelihood.

Visit <http://njecpac.blogspot.org> and explore the myriad of information provided to you from your NJECPAC. If you have not done so already please register your email address on the site to receive real time updates via email