OSHA 10 – HOUR COURSE

- Are you familiar with all the requirements that an OSHA 10 hour card covers?
- Do you want your employees trained in OSHA basics to ensure a safe and productive workplace?
- Are you aware that an increasing number of general contractors and insurance companies are requiring OSHA 10 hour cards?
- OSHA Penalties for Other-Than-Serious violations can be as high as $12,471 per violation.

The New Jersey Independent Electrical Contractors Association (NJ-IEC) is hosting an OSHA 10 hour course on Friday January 12, 2018 (5:00pm-9:00pm) and Saturday January 13, 2018 (8:00am-2:00pm) at our Apprenticeship Training Facility, 160 Tices Lane, East Brunswick, NJ. This course is being taught by John McCabe and all attendees will receive an OSHA 10 card when completed. Additionally, the course provides 10 hours of CEUs from the New Jersey Board of Examiners of Electrical Contractors. All attendees must be present for all 10 hours to receive both the OSHA 10 card and the 10 CEUs. No partial credit is given for either.

Cost: NJ-IEC Members – First Company Attendee $150; Additional Company Attendees $130 per person.
Non NJ-IEC Member - $ 195 per person.
